

Not sure what to do with all those old phone books laying around?

Help support Mosaic by hosting a phone book drive!

*We can provide collection bins, pick up services, shredding and recycling — free of charge!

Mosaic in Dallas offers meaningful, paid work for individuals through its Document Destruction business. This venture turns traditional vocational services into an income-generating business that provides work for people of all skill levels. The document destruction business offers cost-effective, confidential services using high-end cross cutting shredding equipment.

This year, you can help support Mosaic's Document Destruction business by hosting a phone book drive or dropping off your old phone books at our Vocational Center. It is our goal to collect and recycle over 10,000 phone books throughout 2011. We also accept catalogs. To host a phone book drive and request bins or pick up services, please contact Darron Brewer at 972.866.9989 x302.

Mosaic in Dallas established services in Aug. 1986. Mosaic serves approximately 3,500 people with intellectual disabilities through 39 agencies in 12 states and through partnerships internationally.
