

Before Dee Dee came to Mosaic, her life was fantastic, but due to her Mom's declining health, her life became unsafe and stagnant. Having a parent's love, nurturing environment and support just weren't possible for Dee Dee. It seemed to Dee Dee that due to her Mom's health, her life became unsafe and unpredictable.

Mosaic and Dee Dee's sisters recognized the need for a higher level of care and supports for Dee Dee and her family. Within a year, Dee Dee received tremendous support from her sisters and Mosaic to help her turn her life around. Rather than being afraid, very sick and aggressive, she is happy and healthy. Our Host Home and Day Program services taught Dee Dee to trust, communicate and how to be safe. Mosaic and Dee Dee's sisters, say she is a full life again. Mosaic provided Dee Dee with stability to get back out there and be a good person.

Now, Dee Dee is 61 years old and is thriving. She is active each day. She goes on vacation with her Host Home Providers, visits with her sisters and volunteers in the community. Dee Dee says, "Thanks for giving me a safe and full life."

Mission

Mosaic provides a life of possibilities for people with intellectual disabilities. We help people define their own happiness. We support them and empower the pursuit of their goals. We celebrate their successes, even if that success is as simple as the pursuit itself.

Mosaic in Western Colorado partners with people with intellectual disabilities to create a meaningful life in a caring community, giving a voice to their needs.

Mosaic began providing services to people with disabilities in Western Colorado in July 1986. Today, we provide individualized supports and services for more than 60 people. Our services are designed in partnership with each person we serve and are unique to that individual. In our many years of service to the Western Colorado area, the quality of this program has been affirmed by state surveys.

Everything we do supports people with intellectual disabilities on their journey to a life of happiness and fulfillment. Whether you are looking for employment, volunteer opportunities, or services for an individual with intellectual disabilities, we hope you will consider being a part of Mosaic in Western Colorado.

Services in Western Colorado

Intermittent Services:

Life Assistance Solutions Private Pay Option — Mosaic's trained, caring staff can fill in when family members or friends aren't able or available to help. This is not assisted living or medical care, but instead provides help with household tasks, or maybe just companionship or an escort for shopping and errands.

Supported Living Services — To link services and supports with existing natural supports and generic community services so that medicaid eligible adults, who are responsible for their own living arrangements, have the necessary supports to be included in typical Colorado community life. Supports may include items such as grocery shopping, assistance with medications, medical care coordination, and group activities.

Children (CES) — To provide Medicaid benefits and additional targeted services and supports to children with developmental disabilities or delays who live with their families and who are most in need because of the severity of the disability. These include behavioral supports, community connector, and respite.

Residential Services:

Host Homes — Host homes match a person receiving services with someone who provides the assistance needed for daily living in a family-like or roommate-like setting. The program is designed to allow an individual to enjoy the benefits of family living while continuing habilitation and personal growth.

Semi-independent Services — We assist individuals living in their own residences with daily living activities (i.e.. money management, cooking, shopping) or socialization activities. This is accomplished by identifying the frequency of contact that is most appropriate for the person and their needs.

Meaningful Day Services:

Specialized Habilitation — Generally services are provided in a training center/class room with others that have intellectual disabilities. Activities include games, crafts, classes, exercise, and engaging events that are similar to a retirement program or class room.

Community Connections — Services are provided in typical community-based settings enjoyed by all citizens. We partner with other community non-profits needing volunteers and provide a small group of individuals out to give back to their community. Some of our partners are Salvation Army, Goodwill, and local animal shelters.

Supported Employment — To provide vocational services which promote and support inclusion within the community. We encourage and assist people in obtaining jobs in the community or running their own small business. Our focus is on assessing interest, job placement, and job coaching.
