Gary Lee Joins Mosaic as Senior Vice President of Business Development

OMAHA, Neb. – January 16, 2008 – Mosaic, a Nebraska-based, national nonprofit organization, has hired Gary Lee as senior vice president of business development. In his role, Lee will work with Mosaic’s risk management team and insurance programs and will develop for-profit business ventures.

Lee has 36 years of experience working in the finance, accounting, and insurance fields. He came to Mosaic after working at Aon Risk Services for over ten years as a senior vice president. He is a graduate of the University of Nebraska in Lincoln with a Bachelor of Science in business administration.

“In my former life, I had the privilege of working with Mosaic and its predecessor organizations, Bethphage and Martin Luther Homes, for over 13 years,” Lee said. “What attracted me to Mosaic was its mission, its people, and its high level of integrity. I’m grateful for the opportunity to be part of the Mosaic family.”

One of Lee’s favorite quotes about work is from Katharine Graham, former publisher of the Washington Post, “If you enjoy what your doing, trust the people you work with and know that it matters, how could anything be more fun?”

Lee is a lifelong Nebraska resident and has been married for 37 years to his wife, Cheryl. The couple has two daughters and two grandchildren, all in Lincoln. He enjoys following the Huskers, traveling, and playing golf.

Mosaic provides individualized services, living options, work choices, spiritual nurture and advocacy to people with disabilities across 14 states and Great Britain through the work of 5,000 employees. Mosaic is an affiliated social ministry organization of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, a recognized service organization of the Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod and a member of Lutheran Services in America. Mosaic is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization.
