You are WANTED at the Mosaic's Heartland Hoedown

OMAHA, Neb. – March 25, 2008 – Mosaic in Omaha is hosting its first annual Heartland Hoedown on Saturday, May 3, 2008 at the Town Hall at Carol Joy Holling Center. The Heartland Hoedown is a benefit for the Omaha programs and is an opportunity to learn more about Mosaic and support people who have disabilities.

This event will feature a fabulous dinner, silent and live auctions, dance, and hayrack rides. Proceeds directly benefit individuals served by Mosaic's Omaha agency. The evening will begin at 6:00 p.m. with a cocktail hour and silent auction, followed by dinner at 7:00 p.m. and live auction. Entertainment is provided by The Florentine Players and The Country Kickers. Attire is western or casual. Individual tickets are $75. Tickets may be purchased online at www.mosaicinfo.org/heartlandhoedown.

Mosaic, a non-profit organization tied intimately to Omaha, serves and advocates wholeness of life and quality living for people with developmental disabilities. Mosaic's legacy organizations, Bethphage and Martin Luther Homes, provided services in Omaha for more than 20 years.

Under the direction of Mark Stromer, Executive Director of Mosaic's Omaha, Neb. agency, the agency serves over 230 people with developmental disabilities in the community. Services provided include residential services, vocational programs, spiritual growth and community integration, and recreation.

For more information please contact Rita Forney, Community Relations Manager for the Omaha agency, at 402-896-9988 x101 or rita.forney@mosaicinfo.org. Visit the Mosaic web site at www.mosaicinfo.org.

Mosaic provides individualized services, living options, work choices, spiritual nurture and advocacy to people with disabilities in more than 250 communities across 14 states and Great Britain. Mosaic is an affiliated social ministry organization of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, a recognized service organization of the Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod and a member of Lutheran Services in America. Mosaic is a 501(c)(3) organization.
