Sahm Family Foundation Awards Mosaic $10,000 Grant

DALLAS, Texas – The Sahm Family Foundation in Addison, Texas awarded Mosaic in Dallas a $10,000 grant, which will support the document destruction business at the Mosaic Vocational Center. An industrial-sized shredder will be purchased for use the vocational center to expand its document destruction business, which shreds confidential and personal documents, office papers, file folders, plastic window envelopes, staples and binders, plastic cards, and computer disks.

The document destruction business at Mosaic in Dallas provides meaningful training and paid work for people with developmental disabilities and will keep Mosaic on the cutting edge of disability services by turning traditional vocational services into an income generating businesses that provides work for people at all skill levels.

Mosaic in Dallas is thankful to the Sahm Family Foundation for this support, which will provide meaningful work, essential skills, and positive relationships in the Dallas community for individuals served by Mosaic in Dallas. Individuals will also learn the satisfaction and pride of holding a job and earning a wage.
