Mosaic President Named to Lutheran Services in America Board of Directors

OMAHA, Neb. -- May 7, 2008 -- Linda Timmons, president and chief operating officer of Mosaic, was appointed to a two year term on the board of directors for Lutheran Services in America at their annual meeting on April 24.

Presently, Timmons is accountable for Mosaic's operational results for 40 programs providing services to more than 3,700 people throughout 250 communities. She led Mosaic in achieving the first Basic Assurances® Network Certification Award issued by The Council on Quality and Leadership, and successfully led the organization's largest team through the consolidation of two long-standing organizations in 2003, and into a significant re-design of operating structure and organizational culture in 2006. Timmons will become the president and chief executive officer of Mosaic effective July 1, 2008.

Timmons has a long history with Mosaic and is rooted in the social ministry of her Lutheran faith. When she was 6 years old, her family moved to Axtell, Neb., where she grew up in the home that was originally built for Pastor K.G. William Dahl, the founder of Bethphage, one of Mosaic's legacy organizations. Timmons held numerous positions in Bethphage, including Senior Vice President of Program Services at Bethphage and President and CEO of Bethphage Mission West. From 1998- 2004, Timmons served on the board as chairperson and vice chair of The Council on Quality and Leadership.

Timmons accomplished advanced work in public administration and holds a Master's degree in Human Services from St. Edward's University in Austin, Texas. She has her Bachelor's degree from the University of Nebraska at Kearney where she majored in social work with a minor in special education. Timmons' family includes husband, Randy Timmons, and children Meagan and Christopher. She is an active member at Rejoice! Lutheran Church (ELCA) of Omaha, Neb.

Mosaic provides individualized services, living options, work choices, spiritual nurture and advocacy to people with disabilities across 14 states and Great Britain through the work of 5,000 employees. Mosaic is an affiliated social ministry organization of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, a recognized service organization of the Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod and a member of Lutheran Services in America. Mosaic is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization.
